

MARK GILHEANY

Foot and Ankle Specialist | Podiatric Surgeon
FACPS(AUS), FFPM RCPS(Glasg), FAAFAS(USA), MSurgEd(Melb)

Mark Gilheany is a podiatric surgeon. For over 25 years offering specialist access to surgical care for foot and ankle pathology in regional Victoria and with a base in Melbourne. He has attained fellowships from the USA and the UK in addition to Australian qualifications.

Mark is extensively published and in addition to surgical qualifications holds a master's degree in surgical education from Melbourne University and has also studied public health at a doctoral level.

In addition to his clinical role, he has sat on a range of regulatory boards/committees as part of the Australian national regulation and accreditation scheme for health care practitioners, most recently involved in the development and implementation of the capabilities and professional standards for podiatrists and podiatric surgeons.

He has also been involved in teaching across the various domains of podiatric medicine throughout his career and is an adjunct Associate Professor at La Trobe University.

Mark is a past president of the Australasian College of Podiatric Surgeons and continues to be involved in podiatric surgical education, leading the ACPS to successful independent accreditation of its podiatric surgical training program as chair of ACPS education and training.

A body of work across clinical services, education, policy, regulation, and advocacy that has been recognized through various awards including life membership of the Australian Podiatry Association.